PRINCIPAL'S REPORT:

Dear Parents,

Welcome home to our newest member of Greenwell Point –Xavier Cocking Peninton .

It's hard to believe we have had the longest night and the shortest day and should now start seeing longer days. The forecast is for wet, wet, wet and if you haven't had enough water, then it will rain again! This is a good time to send your child to school with a pair of dry socks, small hand towel and gum boots. Despite how many times a teacher may say for the children to remain out of the water they still seem to forget and end up very wet and cold.

We commence our winter holidays this Friday. I have read and seen some excellent results from many students this semester. The teachers at this school, work very hard to make sure your child is working to and beyond expectations. They provide many opportunities for additional activities within and outside the school environment. In some cases these activities need the support of the child's family. Many thanks to the parents who have provided transport for these events in the past and therefore giving your child the additional opportunities that make the difference.

School reports will be coming home later this week. Parent Teacher interviews will be held early next term and you will be given the opportunity to discuss the report closely with the teacher.

During the school holidays if you are looking for something different to do with your children without costing a fortune, then read what is on at the Nowra Library. On Wednesday 3rd July commencing at 10am for ages 5-12 winter crafts, stories and activities. Tuesday 9th commencing at 11am best selling children's author, Andy Jones presents a hilarious literacy and musical show about jokes and humour and on Friday 12th July 10 am. A Roald Dahl Day where you can dress up as your favourite Dahl character with more craft and activities. Limited numbers for all events so be sure to book on 44293712 and ask for Jessica Green.

Students interested in participating in the Music Festival this year will be bringing home a copy of the songs to sing over the holidays. Please enjoy the songs with your child as you help them learn the words.

SPORT

SMALL SCHOOL'S ATHLETICS CARNIVAL

The Small School's Athletics Carnival for this Thursday has been postponed till Term 3 due to wet weather. You will be advised during the week of the new date. Thanking you.

CONGRATULATIONS JAYDEN WRIGHT

Jayden plays in the NSW National Indoor Cricket Tournament on the 30th June till 6th July at Sportsworld Liverpool. He will be up against 7 states all week and his coach Scott Bailey says Jayden has improved immensely with his cricket and it couldn't be done without hard work at training. Good luck Jayden.
