PRINCIPAL'S REPORT:

Dear Parents,

Congratulations to our kindergarten children who celebrated their 100 days at school today. Many thanks to Mrs. Williams for stepping in at the last minute and organising the activities. Thank you to Taylor, William and Sammi's mums for helping with the food preparation and BBQ.

Lost property has started to collect in the front of the office. Please ask your child to look for any missing items. We also have a brand new hat that has gone missing and may have gone home to the wrong home. Please check that your child has a name in every jumper, hat etc.

Next week is Education Week. It will not be forgotten but we are planning a Doing Things Together Day a few weeks later and will combine with Book Week to have a big splash! Watch this space for more exciting news.

The planning for our Oyster Festival is well on the way but need support from everyone. During these cold days keep thinking about how you can help. They are still looking for craft items, saleable re-gifted items, plants, children pre-loved clean toys, books etc. for one of our stalls. You are also welcome to come to the meetings and offer your ideas and support.

LMBR training starts this week and the office staff will be in need of lots of TLC, as our brains swim with new information.

It is with great excitement I would like to announce that Power FM will be broadcasting their breakfast show from the school on the 27th October. Thankyou everyone that voted.
