PRINCIPAL'S REPORT:

Dear Parents,

This week sees the start of some very exciting Teacher Professional Learning happening across the school. Three of our teachers are taking part in Accelerated Literacy training with a view to implementing what they are learning back in their classroom this year and beyond. It does mean a little bit of disruption to classes for a few days, but having completed the training myself, I know it will be well worth it.

This week also sees our K-2 students participating in an excursion to see "Room on the Broom". This play is based on a favourite children's book by Julia Donaldson will be on at the at the Entertainment Centre in Nowra. The children are looking forward to this activity. As we need to confirm seats and buses, Tuesday is the last day we can accept money and permission notes.

In addition to our already busy week, this Thursday our Book Fair will commence and so will the first of our Kindergarten Orientation Days. We look forward to meeting new families and siblings of current students who are attending on this day.

Have a great week,

Regards,
Catherine Glennan
Relieving Principal
