PRINCIPAL'S REPORT:

Dear Parents

Today students in our infants classes were lucky enough to participate in a readers theatre performance put on by Shoalhaven City Library.

In brief conversations that I had with students after the visit I could see their enthusiasm and delight at the performance – which was great to see. I look forward to seeing 2/3H performing their own Readers Theatre performance later on in the term.

This Friday sees our book character parade and our whole school assembly. The assembly will commence at 12pm sharp. Concluding the assembly and parade, parents and family are invited to join us for a picnic lunch. The canteen will be selling sausages sandwiches, drinks and ice blocks. There will also be one last chance to get your guesses in for the guessing competition and books will still be on sale for the Book Fair.

All orders for sausage sandwiches can be placed through the My School Connect app.

Have a great week,

Catherine Secombe
