Book Club

ANZAC Services

Yesterday we had our school ANZAC day service. We were fortunate to receive a visit from Chief Petty Officer Phil Hirschausen who talked to the students about life at sea and his deployments. The students enjoyed his talk and the questions were never ending! Thank you, Chief Petty Officer Phil Hirschausen for your talk to our students.

The school was also presented with books for the library from the Nowra/Greenwell Point sub branch RSL by Mr Michael Kostivk. Thankyou also to Mr Kostivk for talking to the students and visiting our school. The books will be a treasured addition to our library.

Dawn Service

The school was represented by Mrs Scott, Mr Tucker, Mrs Williams and a group of students at the Greenwell Point Dawn Service on ANZAC Day. Thankyou to our teachers, leaders and students for braving the early morning to represent our school and make us proud.

Have a wonderful weekend!
